KAYSVILLE OWNS PLANT

Enabled to Purchase the Same Through Public Spirit of One of Her Citizens.

Kaysville, June 10.—After negotiating for several days for the ownership of the electric lighting plant that has been installed in Kaysville, by B. E. Slusser of Salt Lake, the Kaysville city council this morning came into possession of the system and will at once extend the lines and light the business and residence districts. The citizens' mass meeting last week, at which the council was authorized to purchase the plant, was followed by conferences between the city officials and Mr. Slusser. No agreement could be reached and finally Mr. Slusser decided to cease negotiations. The effect of this was that the plant was likely to be idle, and the town to remain dark, as the owner was about to leave for Wyoming, where he has a larger project on foot. In this dilemma Hyrum Stewart took up the matter and finally bought the plant as it stands, with equipment and franchise at a very satisfactory price. He then showed the public spirit by offering the plant to the city without a dollar of profit to himself. The council devoted two sessions to the consideration of the question and last night decided to make the purchase. The deal was closed this morning.

It is understood that about $2,000 will be required by the city to pay for the plant and make necessary extensions this year. To raise this sum a special tax will be levied. The council's action will meet with general approval.

Mr. Stewart had already planned to organize a company and operate the plant had the council not bought it.

Neph, June 12.—President John A. Widsoe of the Agricultural college, Professor Lewis A. Merrill, director of the state experiment station, Professor Osborne Widsoe of the L. D. S. college, and J. G. McQuarrie, president of the eastern states mission, were in town yesterday on a tour of inspection of the state experiment station, and also of the mammoth wheat farm in Dog Valley, in which Professor Widsoe and Merrill are greatly interested. On their return from the trip they informed The Herald correspondent that the big grain tract already planted this season, between sixteen and twenty men are constantly employed and the scientific principles of dry farming are being carried out along the most advanced lines.

Never before has the experiment farm here inspired its experimenters with such hope of reward for their investigations.

The 50 or more varieties of wheat and other crops planted this spring are growing beautifully and results will be carefully watched by the scientific and progressive farmers of the state. President Widsoe and Director Merrill announce that more experiments than ever will be conducted here in the future.

Miner at Highland Boy Is Decapitated by Falling Rock—Men Injured at Yampa Mill.

(Special to The Herald.) Bingham, June 12.—Peter Casera, at work in No. 8 stope in the Highland Boy at 19 a. m. today, was caught by a cave-in, a rock falling and decapitating him. He was about 22 years of age and had just returned from Italy, where he had been on a visit to his parents. While drilling into a missed hole at the sulphide workings of the Boston Consolidated mine, Casera was struck by a large rock which fell from the ceiling of the stope. The rock was about 10 feet long and 6 inches in diameter. It struck Casera on the head and decapitated him. The body was found about 100 feet from the place of the accident. The cause of the accident is being investigated. The mine was closed for several days. The body was taken to the hospital in Salt Lake City. The mine was reopened today.

BOYS ENJOY OUTING.

Vote Pelican Point As An Ideal Place for Camp Life.

Lehi, June 11.—The crowd of seventy-five Salt Lake boys, under the personal charge of Dr. Elwood Brown, of the Y. M. C. A., are having the time of their lives at Pelican point, on the west shore of Utah lake. Their tents are pitched on the beach of land thick with pine trees, and as they retire to rest at night the waves come up within a few feet of their tents and fill them with sleep. When they arrived in Lehi Tuesday morning, after alighting from the train, they marched on foot two miles to Utah lake, where gasoline launches were waiting to take them ten miles further to the place for twelve days camping. A wagon came in to Lehi today for another load of bread and other provisions, which is good evidence that the boys are not only enjoying the outing, but are also having high times playing basketball and baseball, running races and indulging in other athletic contests. The program for today consists of a trip down the shore to a place known as the birds' roost, where the boys will see a large number of birds nesting. They will also see a large number of seals. The boys are just now hatching out their young. From there they will take a three-mile walk up the mountains to the famous supper of double dimensions for their accommodation.

MORE TROUBLE FOR BECK.

Men in Charge of Industrial Company Leave for Parts Unknown, Taking Horses and Buggy.

Richfield, June 11.—There was stir in Monroe and Richfield yesterday, when the report got out that the gentleman in charge of the Beck Industrial company had departed for parts unknown and without settling with the employees. A report is in circulation that the men in charge left Sunday morning, taking with them a couple of horses attached to a light rig and a saddle horse.

When it was definitely known that the managers had fled, the working men at once secured a writ of attachment and all the personal property and they are now holding this as security for their wages.

The Beck Industrial company was organized about six months ago by John Beck of Salt Lake City, and great promises were made as to the great things that would be done by the hot springs at Monroe. He also said that he was going to use the water for hatching chickens on a very large scale. In fact, it would be on the largest scale ever attempted in the west. A large sanitarium and hotel would be built at the springs and also going to build an electric railway that would connect all the towns in the county with Monroe Hot Springs. The company had already done a great deal of work at Monroe in the way of getting the springs in shape for a sanitarium and the raising of chickens.

REXBURG, IDA., NOTES.

(Special Correspondence.) Rexburg, Ida., June 11.—The regular term of the district court convened at St. Anthony Monday last. A great number of cases are on the docket for disposal. The case of the state vs. Eli A. Larkin is attracting more interest than all the rest of the cases.
